

Vox Box Arts Collective Art and Theater workshop taught in Spanish (full immersion)

This VOX BOX Winter arts workshop is geared towards students in Spanish Dual Immersion programs and fluent Spanish speakers.

This exciting and creative art and theater workshop is for 2nd-6th grade Spanish Speaking students. This workshop, taught by master artists/performers/puppeteers Estela Garcia and Patricia Krebs will include theater games, improvisation, puppet-making, set construction and play production with a final performance at the close of the workshop.

Maple Park Community Center

820 East Maple Street Glendale, CA 91205

Schedule: January 2-6 from 9:00am-3:00pm

Extended hours available until 6:00pm.

Tuition: including arts materials - snack provided (students bring lunch from home)

Early Bird enrollment by December 12th!

Tuition: $165, sibling $115

After December 12th:

Tuition: $180, sibling $130

Extended hours: Jan. 3-6, $20 a day (Sibling extended hour fee $10 a day)

Limited number of scholarships available

For more information please contact Program Coordinator: Janice Markham at 323-899-3699 or Janice@voxboxarts.org